The Story of St. Faustina Kowalska

Jesus also taught Sister Faustina the “Chaplet of Divine Mercy,” a special prayer using rosary beads. Jesus told her, “Whoever recites this prayer and marks the hour of My death in even the smallest way will receive more graces than his soul could ever need.”

Divine Mercy Novena: Day 8

You can learn how to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet at www.LentenAdventure.com and join us for the eighth day of the Divine Mercy novena which Our Lord asked Saint Faustina to encourage.

Here is the intention Jesus gave Saint Faustina for this eighth day of the novena:

“Today bring to Me the souls who are detained in purgatory and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy.”

Here is a prayer that Jesus gave Saint Faustina that we can use for this intention:

Most Merciful Jesus, You Yourself have said that You desire mercy; so I bring into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls in Purgatory, souls who are very dear to You, and yet, who must make retribution to Your justice. May the streams of Blood and Water which gushed forth from Your Heart put out the flames of Purgatory, that there, too, the power of Your mercy may be celebrated.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls suffering in Purgatory, who are enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. I beg You, by the sorrowful Passion of Jesus Your Son, and by all the bitterness with which His most sacred Soul was flooded: Manifest Your mercy to the souls who are under Your just scrutiny. Look upon them in no other way but only through the Wounds of Jesus, Your dearly beloved Son; for we firmly believe that there is no limit to Your goodness and compassion. Amen.
