

Preparing for Good Friday

TUESDAY

HOLY WEEK

Jesus was crucified on Good Friday, with two criminals on either side of Him. One was angry and mocked Jesus. The other criminal, whom we call the Good Thief, recognized Jesus was being treated unjustly and spoke humbly to Him.

It is very hard and very painful to speak when hanging on a cross. Despite this, Jesus spoke what are called His “Seven Last Words.” Although He spoke to specific persons each time, His Seven Last Words were also spoken to us.

CIRCLE to whom Jesus was speaking for each of His Seven Last Words.

Quote	To whom was Jesus speaking?
“Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers
“Truly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in paradise.”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers
“Woman, behold, your son! Behold, your mother!”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers
“My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers
“I thirst.”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers
“It is finished.”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers
“Father, into Thy hands, I commit My Spirit.”	His mother John The Good Thief God the Father The soldiers

Jesus is carefully taken down from the Cross, and they lay Him in His mother's arms for one last time, just like she had held Him as a baby and young child. Even now, looking at her Son's beaten and dead body, Mary has faith that God has not abandoned her, but that God will triumph in the end.
